CELEBRATE ROTARY - 100YEARS

WEEKLY BULLETIN OF THE ROTARY CLUB OF SALE.

MONDAY, JULY 26th.

MEETING NOTES

Date: Monday July 26th.

Chair Person: Don Ripper

Sergeant: Stephen Payne

Raffle: Sam Gould

Door: Noel Langley/ Max Morrison

DETAILS

Chair Don Ripper introduced former Rtn. Bruce Arnup to the meeting, Bruce then conducted a valuation session on items bought the meeting by club members.

Items presented ranged from large Mahogany Sideboards valued at approximately $10,000 to books and military medals valued at approximately $75 to $100. Bruce was able to give a precise detail of each and almost every item presented for valuation, only one item had him stumped an that was a knitting needle case that was around 100+ years old. Some of the items presented were Toby Jugs, Charlie Jugs, a very fine cup & saucer set valued at approximately $1800-00, a Rolls Royce Mascot at $1500-00 to $2000-00. Also presented was an example of a Boule Clock, this was from approximately 1870 and valued at $3000 to $3500-00. There were many very fine examples of family history and treasures including a ships lantern given as a wedding present.

WORDS OF WISDOM

A BOSS.

This is the person that is early when you are late and is late when you are early – RDU.

THE FINE SESSION

Acting sergeant, Mike Smith, and I mean acting, was at it tonight. He came up with some of the most brutal fines for some, even fining the guest speaker.

Some of his victims were:

Keith Miller, Extensive travelling

Chris Harrison: well she possibly had it coming.

Noel Langley: Wanting Betty valued

Don Ripper: 6 Rotary meetings in 2 weeks.

Col Counsell: We are not sure, may be the tie, Col.

Max Morrison: Missed Mike driving past, most would at the pace Mike drives at.

Fined George Wilson then asked for an in depth account of the Melbourne football clubs chances in the Grand Final.

JUST FOR FUN

A man entered a bar and ordered a double scotch, the best the bar had to offer. He drank one and ordered a second. As he sipped away he said to the bar attendant: "With what I've got I should not be having this."

In a sympathetic tone, the bar attendant asked: Oh, and what have you got?"

: Fifteen cents" was the reply.

Tears: This is the definition of the hydraulic force by which masculine willpower is defeated by feminine waterpower.
